Department of Sport and Recreation Coaching Ambassador, Western Warriors Coach
Mickey Arthur, encourages State
Sporting Associations to recognise their coaches for the contributions they make to sport.

These awards recognise and reward coaches for their outstanding contribution and commitment to sport in Western Australia.

Each sport has the opportunity to submit their High Performance Coach of the Year and Community Coach of the Year. All individuals will be acknowledged at the dinner in front of their peers and presented with a certificate and gift.

Sports also have the opportunity to nominate up to five people for Commendation Certificates.

This event has been developed to provide the opportunity for reward and recognition. There will be no judging or overall winner.
